SUICIDE

Was Twice Attempted.

Claim of Children of Margaret Jockers.

Contest Over Probating of Her Will.

Question Raised in Reference to Insurance.

State vs. George Smith—Court House News.

The application to probate the will of the late Margaret Jockers was heard by Judge Anderson Wednesday.

By the provisions of the will all of the real estate is given to her son John Jockers, jr. There are several other children and they are preparing to contest the instrument. Both sides were represented by attorneys.

The children who were cut off will claim that their mother was not of sound mind and memory. It will be alleged that on two different occasions she attempted to commit suicide, once by hanging and again by slow strangulation. On both occasions she was discovered by relatives in time to prevent her attempt at self destruction.

Mrs. Jockers and her husband did not agree and the domestic life of the family was unpleasant. This accounts for the other children not being remembered. It is claimed that the father has made seven different wills.

Citation Issued.

A citation has been issued to the widow and heirs of the estate of the late John G. Raymond, to take or renounce the administration of his estate.

A few days ago the Citizens Savings & Loan association filed a motion asking that an administrator be appointed. The association is a creditor of the estate, the claim being for $5,600.

Mr. Raymond left a large amount of life insurance, a portion of which the creditors claim should be turned over to them. This the heirs refused to do. As soon as an administrator has been appointed the bank will present its claim. If it is not allowed an action will be commenced. It is alleged that the annual premiums on the insurance carried by Mr. Raymond exceeded $150. The insurance in excess of that covered by premiums of $150, it is claimed, should be paid to creditors.

Surrendered.

Thomas L. Childs and Stanton M. Anderson, bondsmen for Irvin G. Keatley, brought him into Probate court Wednesday and asked that he be placed in the custody of the sheriff. He is charged with embezzlement. As he was unable to furnish $200 bond he will remain in jail until the session of the grand jury.

Criminal Cases.

A special jury commenced hearing the criminal cases pending in Probate court. The first to be taken up is that of the State vs. George Smith. He is charged with selling liquor on Sunday. There are 26 cases, but only a few will be tried to a jury.

Divorce Case.

Mrs. Lovena C. Franz has filed a petition asking that she be granted a divorce from Edward X. Franz. She charges gross neglect, extreme cruelty and habitual intoxication. They were married in Canton, Nov. 22, 1890, and have one child, whose custody she seeks.

A very prominent society event within the Jewish circles of the city was the marriage Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock of Miss Ethel Whitelaw to Mr. M. Weiss. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Whitelaw, of 114 Jackson st., while the groom is a young business man of Cleveland. In the presence of about 100 invited guests, the ceremony was performed by Rabbi I. E. Philo in the main reception room of Progress Club hall, corner Market and High sts.

The room was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The single ring marriage ceremony was used, and the rest of the service was in accordance with the rule of the Reformed Jewish church. All the guests sat in semi-circles on either side of the room. At one end of the room a beautiful canopy was arranged, and directly in under it the ceremony was performed.

To the triumphant strains of a beautiful wedding march the bridal couple marched up between the circles to the canopy. Preceding the bride were the ushers, Messrs. Sig Holstein of Cleveland and Julius Whitelaw, brother of the bride. The groomsmen and bridesmaid were Herman Whitelaw and Miss Sadie Whitelaw, brother and sister of the bride. The bride was beautifully gowned in white, while the groom wore conventional black.

Immediately following the ceremony the usual informal reception for the purpose of giving the guests opportunity to extend congratulations to the newly married couple was held.

At the conclusion of the reception the party adjourned to the banquet hall, where an elegant wedding feast was served.

The remainder of the evening, until about 10:30, was spent in dancing and merry making.

With the exception of Mr. Sigman Cohn, of Parkersburg, W. Va., all the out-of-town guests were from Cleveland. Their names follow: Mr. and Mrs. Herman Trotter, Mr. and Mrs. S. ### HER MOTHER KNEW.

Was a Student of Human Nature, Not a Mind Reader.

Mother—And so you engaged your self to that young man at Idlewild Springs, did you?

Daughter (sheepishly)—Yes, ma. I promised to become his wife.

"It was on a beautiful moonlight evening in June."

"Why, yes, ma. How did you know?"

"And the hotel band was playing a delightful waltz by Strauss."

"Why, yes. Who told you?"

"And you two were in the arbor on the lawn."

"Yes."

"And the fountain sparkled in the moonlight and made music which seemed like a fairy echo to the sweet melody which floated out from the distant orchestra."

"Yes, how?"

"And the lake with its fleet of pretty boats gliding about the softly illuminated waters seemed like a bit of lovely Venice dreaming at your feet."

"Yes, yes. But how did you know all this?"

"I knew it must have been under some such combination of circumstances that he proposed or you would never have said 'Yes' to such an added little nuptial as that."—New York Weekly.

CLEAR FIELD FOR BRYAN.

Ex-Governor Stone Thinks Tammany Will Follow Croker, in Support of the Nebraska.

St. Louis, Aug. 16.—Governor William J. Stone had the following to say regarding the purported interview with Richard Croker, covered in a New York dispatch yesterday:

"If it is true," said the governor, "that Mr. Croker really favors the nomination of Mr. Bryan, Tammany will certainly follow him, and there will be practically no opposition to Mr. Bryan in the convention. The hearty cheers which greeted Governor Hogg's speech in New York, on the Fourth of July, would rather indicate that Mr. Bryan is not lacking supporters in the Tammany organization. With Tammany supporting him, there will be but very little opposition in the east to Mr. Bryan."

"A statement has been made and purporting to come from Mr. Croker to the effect that what he said complimentary of Mr. Bryan was not intended as an endorsement of his candidacy for the presidency, but merely for the purpose of paying a tribute to a deserving public man. Still, it may be that Mr. Croker sincerely thinks that the party could do no better than to nominate Mr. Bryan."

ALL DEMOCRATS WANT HARMONY.

Harmony Said Conservative Action by the National Convention Was Desired.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 16.—Former Democratic National Chairman William F. Harris of this city, who has returned from Saratoga Springs, N. Y., when asked as to the reported political conferences of leading and representative Democrats now at that place, said he went with his family to Saratoga simply for a brief vacation. There were no conferences, but some informal talks, but as far as he knew, there were no discussion of candidates. Then he said in part:

"The uppermost thought in the minds of those whom I casually met there was the hope that the Democratic national convention of 1900 would pursue such a conservative course that all Democrats and citizens generally of independent tendencies might cordially and enthusiastically support the platform and the candidate. This disposition was manifested by those who believed in free coinage of silver as well as those who oppose it."
